The Benefits of a

Christian School

By Charles Walker, Executive Director AACS (Used by permission)

The joy received from watching a child grow academically and mature in the Lord makes all the effort, and all the money worth it.

- In the Christian School classroom, the teacher openly teaches the truths of scripture because his commitment compels an open, unashamed love and service to Jesus Christ.
- The Christian School provides children with the principles of faith education, opening more doors in a child's life to future success.
- A Christian School provides a child with a foundation developed with a Christ-centered, quality education preparing children to be future Christian leaders in their family, church and community.
- A Christian School becomes a place where families support each other and where their children receive love, nurturing and high expectations in all aspects of their young lives. Providing a Christian family atmosphere for all.
- The Christian values taught in the Christian home and reinforced in the Christian School enable your child to deal with a troubled world without succumbing to its troubles.
- Negative peer pressure is downplayed by emphasizing the relationship of each child with Jesus Christ, and magnifying the Biblical standards of true friendship which calls for love, forgiveness, and accountability.
- Your child receives more individualized attention from the teacher, and this, of course, greatly benefits him academically and personally.
- The public schools cannot prepare a child for a fruitful, Christ-honoring life. In the Christian classroom, your child learns the Biblical truth absolutely necessary for living a balanced Christian life.
